IN AND FOR THE

Fifth Appellate District

F049733 In re Stevie M., a Minor

The court's finding that appellant's adjudication of assault with a deadly weapon did not constitute an adjudication of a section 707(b) offense is reversed. The matter is remanded to the juvenile court. On remand, the juvenile court is directed to (1) specify that appellant was adjudicated of a section 707(b) offense, viz., assault with a deadly weapon, and (2) set a maximum term of confinement in CYA based on the facts and circumstances that brought appellant before the juvenile court. In all other respects, the judgment is affirmed.

By the Court.
